PMSI RELEASES 2012 INDUSTRY PERSPECTIVE FOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Compilation of previous years' statistics provide image of year to come

Tampa, FL (February 16, 2012) – PMSI, one of the nation's largest providers of specialty products and services for the workers' compensation market, announced today the release of its 2012 Industry Perspective, a guide showcasing analysis of the workers' compensation industry trends, including pharmacy, medical equipment and supplies, and home health care.

"If you want to have a clearer picture of the future, you have to look at the past," said Jay Krueger, PMSI's Chief Strategy and Client Services Officer. "The Industry Perspective pulls together data from PMSI's own book of business and industry resources to allow claims professionals to have the current status of the workers' compensation industry and a fact base to think about future developments in the industry."

The 2012 Industry Perspective contains a synopsis of the key legislative issue, underwriting trends, pricing and reimbursement data by state, claims trends and medical and pharmacy cost data. The guide can be downloaded at <http://bit.ly/Industry-Perspective>
